MEDICINAL.

Walking to Work

Is the only way in which the business woman, employed in store or office, can get open air exercise. Is it any wonder that she often grows pale and thin and develops a tendency to "weak lungs." When ever there is pain in breathing, soreness of the chest, obstinate cough, bleeding from the lungs or any other symptoms of disease of the respiratory organs, begin the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and continue the use until cured. Ninety-eight in every hundred who have used "Golden Medical Discovery" for "lung trouble," have been perfectly and permanently cured.

"I was very sick indeed," writes Mrs. Mottie Jacobs, of Fulton, Kent Co., Delaware, "and our family doctor had done all he could for me. I had coughed, spit blood, and was very short of breath. I had pain in my chest and right lung. Also had dyspepsia. Before I took your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets' I was so weak I could not sweep a room, now I can do a small washing. I feel like a new person."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure heart-burn. DR. MOTT'S NERVE-PILLS Made This Change. DO YOU suffer from Nervous Prostration, Fainting or Loss of Manhood, Impotency, or any other ailment? Dr. Mott's Nerve-Pills will cure you. They are sold by all druggists. For sale by Richard Gibson, corner of King and Alfred streets.

CATARRH LOCAL and CLIMATIC. Nothing but a local remedy or change of climate will cure Catarrh. The specific is Ely's Cream Balm. It is quick, absorbent, and gives relief at once. Opens and cleans the nasal passages. Allays inflammation. Heals and protects the membrane. Restores the sense of taste and smell. No mercury. No injurious drugs. Regular size, 50 cents. Family size, $1.00, at Druggists, or by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren street, New York.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS. AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

"I have been troubled with indigestion for ten years, have tried many things and spent much money to no purpose until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken two bottles and get more relief from them than all other medicines taken. I feel more like a boy than I have in twenty years." Andrew Riggs of Sunny Lane, Tex. Thousands have testified as did Mr. Riggs.

To Cure Constipation Forever, Take Casson's Candy Cathartic. 10c or 25c. If C. C. C. fails to cure, druggists refund money.

THE WASHINGTON RELICS.

The President has decided to order the restoration of the historic relics of George Washington, now in the Smithsonian Institution, to the present head of the family, George Washington Custis Lee. Efforts to have this done have been made from time to time, and recently Senator Daniel presented the matter to the President. The Senator was at the White House this morning, and had a talk with the President upon the matter, after which it was decided to make public the correspondence upon the subject.

The following is a copy of Senator Daniel's letter to the President regarding the matter:

"Washington, D. C., April 22, 1901.
"Mr. President,
"Sir: I have the honor to endorse herewith the application of General George Washington Custis Lee submitted to me on behalf of Miss Mary Custis Lee, his sister, who has his power of attorney, for restoration of the relics of General Washington which he became owner of on the death of his mother who was the wife of General R. E. Lee.

"When the House of Representatives passed the resolution in 1869, now thirty-two years ago, against their restoration to General R. E. Lee it was under the apparent impression which it recited that he owned them and had applied for them. This was a mistake as is shown in the report of the Judiciary Committee of the House in 1870. Mrs. Lee had a life tenancy in them and the remainder was in General G. W. C. Lee, as shown in his application for the restoration of the Arlington estate which Congress honored after judicial decision, and purchased from him. By this same title judicially recognized in the Arlington case, and congressionally recognized by the purchase of Arlington--these heirlooms descended to him.

"Mr. President, you know the character of the Lee's. They had rather given than taken and as sectionalism has disappeared, I am sure you will not deem me presumptuous if I express my conviction that you who have done so much to this happy end will (should) your equity, be glad to have these honorable and cherished articles handed over to the rightful heir. With great respect, very truly yours,
"JOHN W. DANIEL."

To this communication the President replied as follows:

"Executive Mansion
"Washington, April 25, 1901.
"My Dear Sir: On behalf of George Washington Custis Lee, you have applied to me for the restoration of certain relics of George Washington, now in the Smithsonian Institution. These articles came from Mount Vernon and before the civil war were the property of George Washington Parke Custis, the grandson of Martha Washington and the owner of Arlington, who, on his death in 1857, left them by his will, along with the Arlington estate, to his daughter, Mary Ann Randolph Lee, the wife of Robert E. Lee, during her natural life and then to her eldest grandson, George Washington Custis Lee, to descend from him, entire and undivided, to my (his) latest posterity.

"The relics were at Arlington when the civil war began, and early in 1863 were turned over to General McDowell, then in command there, by a servant of the Lee family, who became alarmed for their safety. The general, interested in their preservation, sent them to the Patent Office for safekeeping, whence they were transferred to their present place of deposit. It does not appear that the government ever took any steps to divest the title of Mrs. Lee and her son to them, or ever claimed any title of its own. All the government did was to accept the trust of their custody at a time when the owner could not protect them and they were consequently exposed to the risk of destruction. The need for such protection having ceased, and the trust voluntarily assumed having been discharged, it will afford me great satisfaction to give direction for the restoration to the present head of a historic family of these cherished heirlooms of the Father of his Country.

"Sincerely yours,
"WILLIAM McKINLEY.

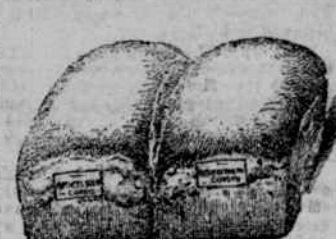

"Hon. John W. Daniel,
"United States Senator."

It is thought probable that Congress will at its next session make an effort to acquire the relics by purchase.

A Testimonial From Old England.
"I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best in the world for bronchitis," says Mr. William Savory, of Warrington, England. It has saved my wife's life, she having been a martyr to bronchitis for over six years, being most of the time confined to her bed. She is now quite well." It is a great pleasure to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to publish testimonials of this character. They show that great good is being done, pain and suffering relieved and valuable lives restored to health and happiness by this remedy. It is for sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.
